

ART, BA: COMMUNITY ARTS

The Bachelor of Arts degree offers students a studio art experience to complement a broad exposure to the humanities, fine arts, social sciences, and natural sciences. Bachelor of Arts (Art) students have two course tracks to choose from: Studio Arts and Community Arts.

The Community Arts track is geared towards students interested in social engagement, environmental issues, community building, public art, and placemaking. Community Arts courses highlight art practices that integrate collaborative processes, social cooperation and service-learning experiences. They will be prepared to work as artists in grassroots organizations, community institutions, non-profit arts organizations, and educational institutions.

Students in the Community Arts track augment their studio research by completing the Cultures and Communities Certificate. As their capstone work, Community Arts BA students develop and execute a self-directed BA Project which is the culmination of their Community Arts research.

The courses required and recommended for this track are listed on the "Requirements" tab. The "Plan of Study" tab suggests course sequencing across all four years so students can meet the degree requirements.

¹ Consult your academic advisor in the Peck School of the Arts Student Services Office for requirements in the Core Curriculum. PSOA Arts Distribution Requirement is part of the 45-credit Core: 9 credits outside of Art & Design, in 3 of the 4 other departments in PSOA: Dance, Music, Theatre, or Film, Video, Animation, and New Genres.

² The 30 credits Directed Electives can be courses in Art & Design and/or other disciplines to be chosen in conjunction with Art & Design Undergraduate advisor, followed by faculty in the areas of interest. Courses required to satisfy the Cultures and Communities Certificate (<https://catalog.uwm.edu/letters-science/cultures-communities-undergraduate-certificate/>) can be part of the Directed Electives or University Core. 150 Multicultural America is a prerequisite for ART 306, and is recommended as a Directed Elective.

³ Six credits (ARTHIST 101 and ARTHIST 102) count as Humanities GER.

⁴ ART 306 and ART 406 are stacked courses - one must be taken in a Spring semester and the other in a Fall semester in order to avoid repeated assignments.

Art & Design Undergraduate Admission Requirements

To be admitted in good standing, applicants (incoming freshmen and transfer students) must meet general University requirements (<https://catalog.uwm.edu/admission-costs/undergraduate-admission/>). After being admitted to UWM and indicating Art as your chosen major, no further steps are required for acceptance into the Department of Art & Design.

Scholarships

Declared majors in Art & Design should fill out the general scholarship application and department application (if applicable) by logging in to the Panther Scholarship Portal.

In addition, incoming undergraduate students should visit the Peck School of the Arts scholarship page for details on portfolio submissions.

Appeal Process

An appeal process is established for students who do not meet the department's criteria for classification, GPA, and area of concentration enrollment management requirements. The appeal process will provide an opportunity for individual students to request advancement to the art major or enrollment into courses as exceptions to the department's enrollment policies based on defined, pre-determined conditions. All appeals are to be directed to the Undergraduate Advisor or PSOA advisor, who will forward the appeals to the department chair or appropriate appeals committee. The department chair or appeals committee will consult with the First Year Program Director, area head, faculty, advisors, and student if necessary before making a decision.
