

STUDIO ART, BFA: SINGLE DISCIPLINE FOCUS

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Studio Art program is a pre-professional degree focusing on studio practice and research, preparing students to become successful studio practitioners and professionals in the arts. From the First Year Program coursework through the Senior Capstone Project, students are encouraged to explore a wide variety of studio practice. During their sophomore year, students choose between the two BFA Studio Art degree plans: Single Discipline Focus and Dual Discipline Focus.

The Single Discipline Focus curriculum is for students who wish to develop their studio research in one studio discipline. Single Discipline students can choose from the following studio media for their focus: Jewelry & Metalsmithing, Painting & Drawing, Photography & Imaging, Printmaking & Book Arts, or Sculpture.

Students are encouraged to use electives to explore all the media offered within the Department of Art and Design to create a well-informed conceptual, formal and technical studio practice. Disciplinary areas for electives include Ceramics, Creative Technologies, Design, Digital Fabrication, Fibers, Jewelry & Metalsmithing, Painting & Drawing, Photography & Imaging, Printmaking & Book Arts, and Sculpture.

Appeal Process

An appeal process is established for students who do not meet the department's criteria for classification, GPA, and area of concentration enrollment management requirements. The appeal process will provide an opportunity for individual students to request advancement to the art major or enrollment into courses as exceptions to the department's enrollment policies based on defined, pre-determined conditions. All appeals are to be directed to the Undergraduate Advisor or PSOA advisor, who will forward the appeals to the department chair or appropriate appeals committee. The department chair or appeals committee will consult with the First Year Program Director, area head, faculty, advisors, and student if necessary before making a decision.
