COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND EDUCATION, BS

The Community Engagement and Education Program is designed for students interested in changing their community, working in non-school educational roles or leadership in community-based organizations. Some students also pursue licensure for teaching in public schools after graduation or teach in private or charter schools.

Courses are offered during the day as well as online, in the evening and on weekends. We also give academic credit for prior professional experience. Areas of study include child care, youth work, urban education, alternative education, policy and leadership in community-based organizations, race relations, and community engagement and social action.

Our graduates work as youth leaders and educators, administrators in community-based organizations, teachers and directors of child care and head start centers, community organizers, and state and local elected officials. To learn more about careers, go to www.uwm.edu/ceed and click on the “Careers” tab to see a list of actual jobs held by alumni, or click on the “Alumni” tab to read stories about some of our alums.

Program Highlights:
- Can be completed fully online, face-to-face, or in combination. Courses offered in the evening, on weekends, online, and in hybrid format.
- Extremely diverse student body—learn with other students from a wide range of backgrounds.
- Up to 42 lower-division electives (free after the first 3) can be earned through our Prior Professional Educational Experience program.
- Accepts a wide range of transfer credits, from military transcripted credits to credits from Associates degrees that do not usually transfer. A number of articulation agreements allow additional credits from completed associates degrees in human services, early childhood education, business, and other programs from specific technical colleges. Go to www.uwm.edu/ceed for more detail.

Requirements
General Education Requirements (GERs)
UW-Milwaukee has General Education Requirements (http://catalog.uwm.edu/policies/undergraduate-policies/#generaleducationcontext) that must be met in order to earn a bachelor’s degree. Some of the requirements of your program may fulfill the campus GERs. Please review the requirements and consult with your academic advisor.

1 Students may earn elective units through upper- or lower-division Educational Policy and Community Studies courses, including Prior Professional Educational Experience (see below), transfer units, or other UWM courses.
2 A maximum of 6 credits of fieldwork (ED POL 509, ED POL 688, or ED POL 698) may be used toward meeting this requirement; ED POL 499 cannot be used.
3 Including upper-division transfer units. These courses should be chosen by the student in consultation with an advisor.

Additional Requirements for Graduation
- 2.0 UWM cumulative GPA
- Satisfactory completion of a minimum of 120 credits

Opportunities
Prior Professional Education Experience (PPEE)
A student who has been accepted as a major in Community Engagement and Education is eligible to earn credit for their professional/life experience by demonstrating their competency through essay examinations (PPEE). Credits earned, by passing individual exams with a grade of C or better, will be counted toward the Community Engagement and Education degree in 3-credit blocks. Students pay for one 3-credit course, and all additional credits they receive through the course are awarded without cost. In order to "pass" the course and receive at least 3 credits, a student must attempt 7 of the 14 competency area essay exams listed below.

Community Engagement and Education majors wishing to demonstrate their competencies for these credits are required to enroll in the competency examination course, ED POL 100 Community Education I, during their first or second semester of study. PPEE students have the opportunity to earn a maximum of 42 credits, which will only apply toward a Community Engagement and Education degree and only as lower-division electives. Students who leave the CEED program will not be able to use these credits in other programs.

Undergraduate Advising
Our purpose is to provide collaborative, mentoring relationships which promote educational, career, and professional development. We value a student-centered, holistic, and ethical approach to advising based on strong partnerships with students, faculty and staff, and the larger campus community. We are committed to creating a respectful and supportive environment. We encourage students to be self-reliant through informed decisions and choices based upon dissemination of accurate information. We value our own continuous professional development to enhance the quality of the advising experience.

How to Prepare for an Advising Meeting
• Review your Advisement Report in PAWS (http://uwm.edu/registrar/academic-unit-services/paws-academic-advisement/).
• Come prepared with questions or topics for discussion.
• Make a list of courses you think you should take.
• Investigate opportunities to prepare for the job you want.
• Keep a record of your academic progress.
• Understand you are ultimately responsible for creating your educational, life, and career plans.
• Maintain honest and open communication with your advisor.
• Take responsibility for choices you make as a student and member of the UW-Milwaukee community.
