Overview

The College of Letters and Science and the Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business offer and present jointly the Master of Science (MS) in Nonprofit Management and Leadership. We are one of only 9 graduate-level programs in the world accredited by the Nonprofit Academic Centers Council (NACC).

Through a rigorous curriculum mapping process, this program was found to meet and surpass requirements in 16 curricular areas vital to nonprofit leaders, including board governance, fundraising, and executive leadership. The review panel found that UWM's program "unambiguously meets 16 of the 16 major content subject areas through curriculum instruction," and surpassed requirements in the majority of those categories.

Alumni of this program are consistently found in nonprofit organizations throughout the country working with a variety of missions, in positions of leadership ranging from program oversight to executive leadership and board service.

Admission Requirements

Application Deadlines

Application deadlines vary by program, please review the application deadline chart (<http://uwm.edu/graduateschool/program-deadlines/>) for specific programs. Other important dates and deadlines can be found by using the One Stop calendars (<https://uwm.edu/onestop/dates-and-deadlines/>).

Applications are considered on a rolling admissions basis, although we suggest that a completed portfolio be submitted at least 6-8 weeks prior to the beginning of the starting semester.

Applicants should keep in mind that applications for various University fellowships are typically due in January. If you are planning to apply for Financial Aid (<http://uwm.edu/onestop/contact/financial-aid/>), all application materials must be submitted by March 1 of each year.

Admission

To be admitted to the MS in Nonprofit Management and Leadership degree program, an applicant must meet Graduate School requirements (<http://uwm.edu/graduateschool/admission/>).

During the admissions process, students will be asked to show evidence of having satisfactorily completed undergraduate or higher level foundation coursework in the principles of accounting and economics. Those students who are unable to show such evidence may be admitted with these academic deficiencies but will then meet with their respective academic advisors to identify and obtain approval for what they must do to remove these deficiencies.

The student is expected to satisfy deficiency requirements within three enrolled semesters. The deficiencies are monitored by the Graduate School and the individual graduate program unit. No course credits earned in making up deficiencies may be counted as program credits required for the degree.

Applicants must submit the following for review by the Graduate School and the Nonprofit Management Program Faculty Committee:

1. Official transcripts from all colleges or universities previously attended.
2. Three letters of recommendation from persons familiar with the applicant's academic ability and/or professional achievements.
3. Scores from either the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) (<http://uwm.edu/graduateschool/admission/#gre>) or the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) (<http://uwm.edu/graduateschool/admission/#gmat>).
4. For those students whose native language is not English, minimum TOEFL score (Test of English as a Foreign Language) of 550 PBT or 79 iBT or minimum IELTS score (International English Language Testing System) of 6.5.
5. Each student's academic preparation is evaluated at the time of application. A personal interview may be required.
